jack was born in stratford ontario oct 17th 1928 he spent his growing up years on the old farm on the mitchell road near the village of motherwell fullarton township perth county ontario in 1942 at the age of 14 he contracted scarlet fever which destroyed his hearing and any chance of a normal life or to further his education unable to find steady work because of his hearing loss he was encouraged to become a barber by dickie thorne the local shoe store man in his home town of mitchell for over forty years jack cut hair in south london this is the story of the life and times of jack the barber getting by in a silent world it s terrible to get old life is all downhill after fifty that s what our youth centered culture may think but don t be duped selected as a finalist for 2006 independent publisher book awards this book can change how you think about aging even make you feel good about getting old a liberating change is happening a change as momentous as the liberation movements of the 1960s and 70s it brings respect for older people appreciation for maturity and the promise of a more balanced culture from the introduction by margaret karmazin and janet amalia weinberg discover a new positive way of looking at aging with still going strong memoirs stories and poems about great older women this exuberant inspiring anthology celebrates the vitality of older women and shows them having adventures facing loss enjoying romance and feeling more capable and confident than ever the 42 authors included in the collection know that life after middle age is not the diminished state dreaded by our youth centered culture but rather a time of growth and fulfillment enriched by the wisdom of experience and perspective get a taste of the passion wit and wisdom of some of these women from why vermont by elayne clift it was great not to be driven by achievement i was learning the art of laid back living spending a day writing or reading was heavenly and i was reminded of my freedom whenever a friend said i d give anything to be doing that from gray matters by marsha dubrow finally i have decided to enjoy being a gray it links me with a powerful sisterhood complimenting each other on our gray badge of courage a woman with dreadlocks resembling pillars of salt approached me on the street and said you go girlfriend we re gray and we re proud and gorgeous we smacked high fives from katherine banning wife mother bank robber by melissa lugo crazy you say well wait till you hit 90 and realize you still want to live that even though you re way past menopause you want another child and that even though your breasts make tracks in the mud you still want a lover and that even though your hands shake there are still things that you didn t get to do like going to the olympics and bringing home the gold things you want to do that you will do then see what you re capable of and you ll be perfectly sane senility temporary insanity it s all bull old folks know exactly what they re doing one of the good parts about being an old fart is that you have a license to be loony tunes to live the wild way you didn t have the balls for before at 90 you see your dignity s gone the way of dirty diapers and your life is heading the same way fast you have nothing to lose except the moment from a different woman by joan kip my relationship with seth is i tell him my great experiment he calls me on every one of my tightly held protections and his pleasure in meeting my body is matched by my own freedom to respond ours is a relationship with no hidden agenda no commitments our occasional evenings of uncomplicated delight are the intertwining of two desires who touch down and embrace one another knowing they will meet again sometime somewhere and while sex is not absent from our meetings it is rather my compelling ache to be touched and held and to touch and hold that pulls me back each time to seth like the newly born whose being depends upon the enfolding presence of a parent those of us who are now so old glow more warmly when we too may share our tenderness still going strong counters demeaning stereotypes of little old ladies by offering positive empowering views of women over fifty it is a hopeful voice that speaks to any woman facing her own future this book deals with the personal experiences and feelings of the author these poems describe the eventful life s journey of the author where she finds life a beautiful blank sheet of waves and whenever she stepped upon her unknowingly trying to overcome the instances the book defines the vast momentum and love of the author where she loves to explore the ardent emotional powers and loves to write about the admiring violent impetus curbing the whole wild nature as well as the unique female cosmos holiness the author describes the experiences she had during her childhood period where she was permanently force to wear the same old school forks shirts and socks and she happily describes the joyous moments when she walk down the street crossing the water filled paddy field deep into the water on the rainy day with those old rubber shoes the book also beautifully highlighted the nature s epitome of unconditional love and how men trample upon through the natures beauty the author seems to describe the numbers of affection developed within her consciousness with the environment there are innumerable instances of the poet s feelings describing the quantum moments of her sisterhood with their sisters and brothers relationship of her emotions describing how she rules her own self and her kingdom where she beautifully describe her wilderness without egos the book also describes the authors love for the animals rainy seasons and snowy winter and she also hunts for the reasons of the reasoning truth of the society of the humanity and of the self destruction there are beautiful instances where the author express her illusionist moments which she find herself lost into the vast unpredicted desires and effort less to handle but just letting go of all those moments and never giving up of herself remembering little things in her life this book is indeed a beautiful master piece of the writer all sum up in one go some folks will often ask tom what his columns in that wisconsin newspaper are all about he will answer do you mean the one in the fennimore times called fennimoreas i remember as though there were any other then he will respond oh i write about a special place friends and neighbors happy times what ever like swimming pools and pool halls town constables and chiefs city parks paper routes pastors parsons and priests i wont forget town and country schools and dedicated teachers there within with tales of playground hi jinksall to make you grin the old places called a blacksmith shop gus shoeing horses at the open door fred doan the harness maker bill buri wagon builderthese craftsmen are no more the fenway theater packed with kids admission one thin dime a friday double feature roy gene and hopalong cowboys for all time there are neighborhoods and life long friends creameries making cheese sparkys saturday night dances may i have this waltzplease i claim my stories are but true as best i can remember and many do agree but others shout not in april twas in november best of all even strangers come to me and say i know this place and the stories that you tell just change the names for then youll seefennimores my hometown as well this poetry collection offers a heartfelt and intimate journey through the eyes of a daughter living with chronic illness and facing the end of her life through a powerful narrative of poems the reader is invited to experience a raw spectrum of emotions pain heartbreak guilt cries and screams that come with confronting mortality yet amidst the intensity there is hope love and an unspoken strength woven throughout the verses each poem serves as a piece of the author s story speaking to anyone who has ever felt unseen unheard or never enough written with honesty and compassion this book is for poetry lovers who are ready to embrace the full ride of human emotion and find connection in the shared experience of suffering and resilience whether you are navigating grief loss or simply seeking poetry that touches the soul this collection will stay with you long after the last page prepare to be moved challenged and comforted in equal measure
